Hi Prasad/Frank,

In our Laszlo review meeting yesterday, we were trying to reconcile the actual BB salary spend (excl. merit/promo, so just the 10% and bonus target portions) to the prelim. estimation from late October.

The actual BB salary spend amounts to [REDACTED] whereas the prelim. estimation from late October was [REDACTED]. The difference can be attributed to different headcount pull dates (mid-Oct vs. mid-Nov), finalized list of promos (as post-promo bonus targets impact BB increases), transfers, terms, etc. [REDACTED]

Hopefully this helps to solve the puzzle and gives comfort when digesting our ~615M actual spend. Please reach out with any further questions/comments.

Thanks,
Anuj
